EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with James O. Ray (Reg. 27,666) on April 28, 2005.

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The claims have been amended as follows:

Referring to claim 36, line 10, replace "validator controller including;" to "validator controller including;"

Referring to claim 39, line 9, replace "controller including;" to "controller including;"

The Specification have been amended as follows:

Please replace paragraph number (0053) on pages 15 and 16 with the amended paragraph as follows:

[0053] The data transmitter 14 can be configured to receive and transmit signals not only to a validator controller 12 above the nail 24 or at a significant distance from the nail 24, but also to a validator controller 12 underneath the finger or using the finger flesh property as a light or electromagnetic energy conducting conduit. A good application of this would be used with pushbutton switches which would have a validator controller built into them or connected to them via a fiber-optic link allowing the smart switch to verify the identification of the user and his validity before allowing the switch to perform the requested action. A fingerprint reader on switches would be too slow, large, unreliable and costly to implement efficiently.

Allowable Subject Matter

This communication is in response to applicant's Amendment which is filed April 14, 2005 in the application of Chornenky for a "human machine interface" filed October 10, 2001.

The proposed amendment has been entered and made of record. Claims 19, 33, 35-36, 38-39 have been amended to more particularly point out and distinctly claim the invention.

Claim 19 is cancelled.

Applicant's amendment with respect to the pending Claims 33, 35-36, 38-39, filed April 14, 2005, places the application in condition for allowance.

Claims 2-6, 8-18, 20-23, 27-31 and 33-45 are allowed as evident by applicant's amendments.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue
